Re: Peters v. Carver Bankcorp, Inc., et al.
Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-06835-VSB-GS

Dated: New York, New York
December 24, 2024

SO ORDERED:

HON. GARY STEIN
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Dear Judge Stein:

This firm represents Defendants Carver Bancorp, Inc. d/b/a Carver Federal Savings Bank and Robert Rennis with respect to the above matter.

With the consent of Douglas Lipsky, attorney for Plaintiff Tamara Peters, we write to respectfully request a brief, two-week adjournment of the Initial Case Management Conference ("CMC"), which is presently scheduled for January 9, 2025.

The reason for this request is that the parties are scheduled to mediate this matter with Ruth D. Raisfeld, Esq. on January 8. We believe that an adjournment of the CMC will enable counsel for the parties to determine whether a full and final settlement can be achieved, which will not only conserve judicial resources, but also, potentially enable the parties to allocate all resources toward settlement that otherwise would go toward the costs and fees associated with proceeding with discovery and the CMC.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

GORDON REES SCULLY MANSUKHANI, LLP
